

AT THE END OF TRAINING THE CLINICIAN SHOULD BE ABLE TO:

- Describe the general operation and structure of the Passport 8 or Passport 12 monitor
- Explain how to admit a patient and enter patient demographic information
- Discuss screen layouts and options
- Understand basic parameter functions, such as HR, SpO<sub>2</sub>, NIBP, CO<sub>2</sub>, etc.
- Identify alarm behavior and differentiate between alarm reset and alarm pause
- Identify departmental alarm settings
- Explain how to adjust patient specific alarms
- Outline the arrhythmia analysis process if applicable and describe basic troubleshooting techniques
- View and print current and historical patient data
- Discharge a patient and differentiate between standby and discharge